

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MATTHEW JAMES DURY,

Defendant.

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Defendant’s “Motion to Void Any Proceeding in this Case after November 9, 2007 as Unconstitutional ...” [Doc. 106] and Defendant’s Motion to Challenge Jurisdiction...” [Doc. 111].

The Defendant, yet again, challenges this Court's jurisdiction as a grounds to "void the proceedings" in this case. The Defendant's jurisdictional challenges have been repeatedly rejected by this Court [Docs. 34, 46, 87, 90, 104], as well as by the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals [Docs. 40, 105]. The Defendant's present motions are frivolous and are therefore denied.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Defendant's "Motion to Void Any Proceeding in this Case after November 9, 2007 as Unconstitutional ..."

[Doc. 106] and Defendant's Motion to Challenge Jurisdiction..." [Doc. 111] are DENIED AND DISMISSED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed: February 14, 2018

Martin Reidinger
United States District Judge
